activity

Pales d.o.o., with its trademark Opus Aeris®, for more than a decade has combined many years of practical knowledge of the everyday working environment, How to live & work in a connected world with no cables. The furniture that is accompanied by the slogan: “No Cable Society” is a futuristically designed working environment and office layout that is based on lightness, exceptional mobility and being firmly set in the modern technology of the future. Its airiness and unforced setting in the environment has attracted a great deal of favorable comment.

MISSION, VISION, AIMS

Our vision and aim is to strive for the integration of a high quality working environment, which is actually linked to the user’s needs and the specific culture of the company or way of life.

why

we need the office of the future

The Opus Aeris system is intended for users in time, as:

- ↳ innovative
- ↳ practical
- ↳ adaptable
- ↳ flexible
- ↳ mobile
- ↳ easily transparent
- ↳ creatively designed

advantages

The multi-functionality of the Opus Aeris system, in addition to a fresh, pure approach, also offers great functional value. It can be an impressive piece in a living room, above all functional in an office, or stand alone as a bedside table.

It provides the possibility of a free choice of combining elements, as well as being designed to order on the theme of your choice. The design can be adjusted to you personally or to your company's activity. The Opus Aeris system is also very functional for promotion or exhibition presentations.

We leave the decision on color and final finish to you, so that you can create your own individual composition.

“ lighting

As an addition capable of functioning as partition walls, we offer well designed lighting in two dimensions:

- 90 x 120 cm
- 90 x 90 cm
